Policy Statement

What your Therapist Does:

- Provide counseling for children, adolescents, individuals, and families that support healing.
- Suggest books, support groups, classes, and information for parents that may help with custody, visitation, and shared parenting.
- For court-ordered clients, I can report the number of sessions attended, session dates, and client's involvement in therapy.
- Report harm to self or others according to Colorado Law.

What your Therapist Does not Do:

- Mediation
- Get involved in the legal aspects of court cases or testify in court.
- Make recommendations for parenting time, custody or visitation for children in divorce or separation situations.
- Evaluate a child for possible sexual or physical abuse or neglect.

I understand that a Child Family Investigator or special advocate specifically hired as an evaluator can offer recommendations to an attorney or to the court. I agree not to request Nancy Martin, M.A., L.P.C. to communicate with an attorney or with any court about what she knows about me or my child. I agree to provide permission for Nancy Martin, MA, LPC to treat my child _____ utilizing Child and Family Centered Play Therapy.

Contact For Emergency Crisis Services:

Colorado Crisis Services, which is staffed 24/7 by both peers and crisis clinicians, is capable of dispatching our new Mobile Crisis response (S.M.A.R.T) team if necessary. Here's an example of what you can say: "If you are experiencing a mental health crisis, please call Colorado Crisis Services at 844-493-8255, or text 'TALK' to 38255, to speak to a peer or a crisis clinician."

I have read and understand these policies.
